

Release of Liability
St. Francis High School
Grad Night Celebration
May 26, 2010

Release of Liability for St. Francis High School, Its Agents and Employees:

By signing this agreement, I understand that Grad Night is NOT a St. Francis High School sponsored event. I understand and agree that the persons who have organized, supervised and transported my child are not agents or employees of St. Francis High School.

I understand that Grad Night's purpose is to help eliminate some of the risks which have killed or severely injured graduating high school students by attempting to keep them away from drugs and alcohol and to keep them off the roads and from behind the wheel of a car.

I understand that the event is supervised and staffed by volunteers, and realize that no one can eliminate ALL risks of injury or damages that are associated with the gathering and interaction of hundreds of teenagers.

By signing this agreement and or by participating in Grad Night, I agree that in the event my child is injured or suffers damage, I will not take legal action against St. Francis High School, its agents or employees. I hereby release St. Francis High School, its agents or employees from all liability for injury or damage my child may suffer accept any injury or damage caused by fraud, willful misconduct and or violation of the law. I make this agreement on behalf of myself and my heirs.
